Building For Others

An old man going a lone highway,
Came, at the evening cold and gray,
To a chasm vast and deep and wide.
The old man crossed in the twilight dim,
The sullen stream had no fear for him;
But he turned when safe on the other side
And built a bridge to span the tide.

"Old Man," said a fellow pilgrim near,
"You are wasting your time building here,
Your journey will end with the ending day,
You never again will pass this way;
You've crossed the chasm, deep and wide,
Why build this bridge at evening tide?"

The builder lifted his old gray head;
"Good friend, in the path I have come," he said
"There followed after me to-day
A youth whose feet must pass this way.
This chasm has been as naught to me,
To that fair-haired youth may a pitfall be,
He, too, must cross in the twilight dim;
Good friend, I am building this bridge for him!"

Foreword

This is a memento of our years, containing memories never forgotten.

In the spring of 1963, workers laid the first bricks of a new Dan River. Following this work anxiously and hopefully were the eyes of 86 young men and women who marvelled at the idea of being the first graduating class.

Now, our last year is here. With our anxieties answered, our thoughts turn to a bridge that must be built to reach our goals. When we build that bridge, and we shall, we will cross it and leave behind us customs and ideals which will become traditions for the following classes; but most important of all is that we shall build a better country in which to live by "Building for Others."

To build that bridge we must strive for high ideals in the fields of . . . .

Dedication

In Memory of

Raymond H. Rickman

Principal

Dan River High School

1947 - 1963

For sixteen years every student who entered Dan River became Mr. Rickman's son or daughter. He took us all into his heart as his own and created for us a home away from home.

Dan River students have longed for that night when Mr. Rickman would hand them the coveted diploma. The smile, the handshake, the look of faith in his eyes, faith in every senior, was a tradition at Dan River every spring. The Class of 1964 looked forward to this spring for five years. Since that day in September, 1959, when we entered the eighth grade this was our ultimate goal. This spring when the diplomas are presented to us, Mr. Rickman will be there again; there in the heart of every senior in the Class of 1964.

Our beloved principal, Mr. Rickman, died on December 6, 1963. For sixteen years he served Pittsylvania County as head of Dan River High School. In the fall of 1963 his fondest dream came true—a new building for Dan River students.

Keeping in our minds the regard and love shown toward him by everyone who knew him and the way in which he fulfilled the role of teacher and principal to the highest degree, we, the SENIOR CLASS OF 1964 dedicate our yearbook to his memory. We dedicate in the hope that we may become citizens such as he, that we may become Americans he would be proud to call his sons and daughters, that we might truly be

"Building for Others."

OBJECTS

To promote the welfare of children and youth in home, school, church, and community.

To raise the standards of home life.

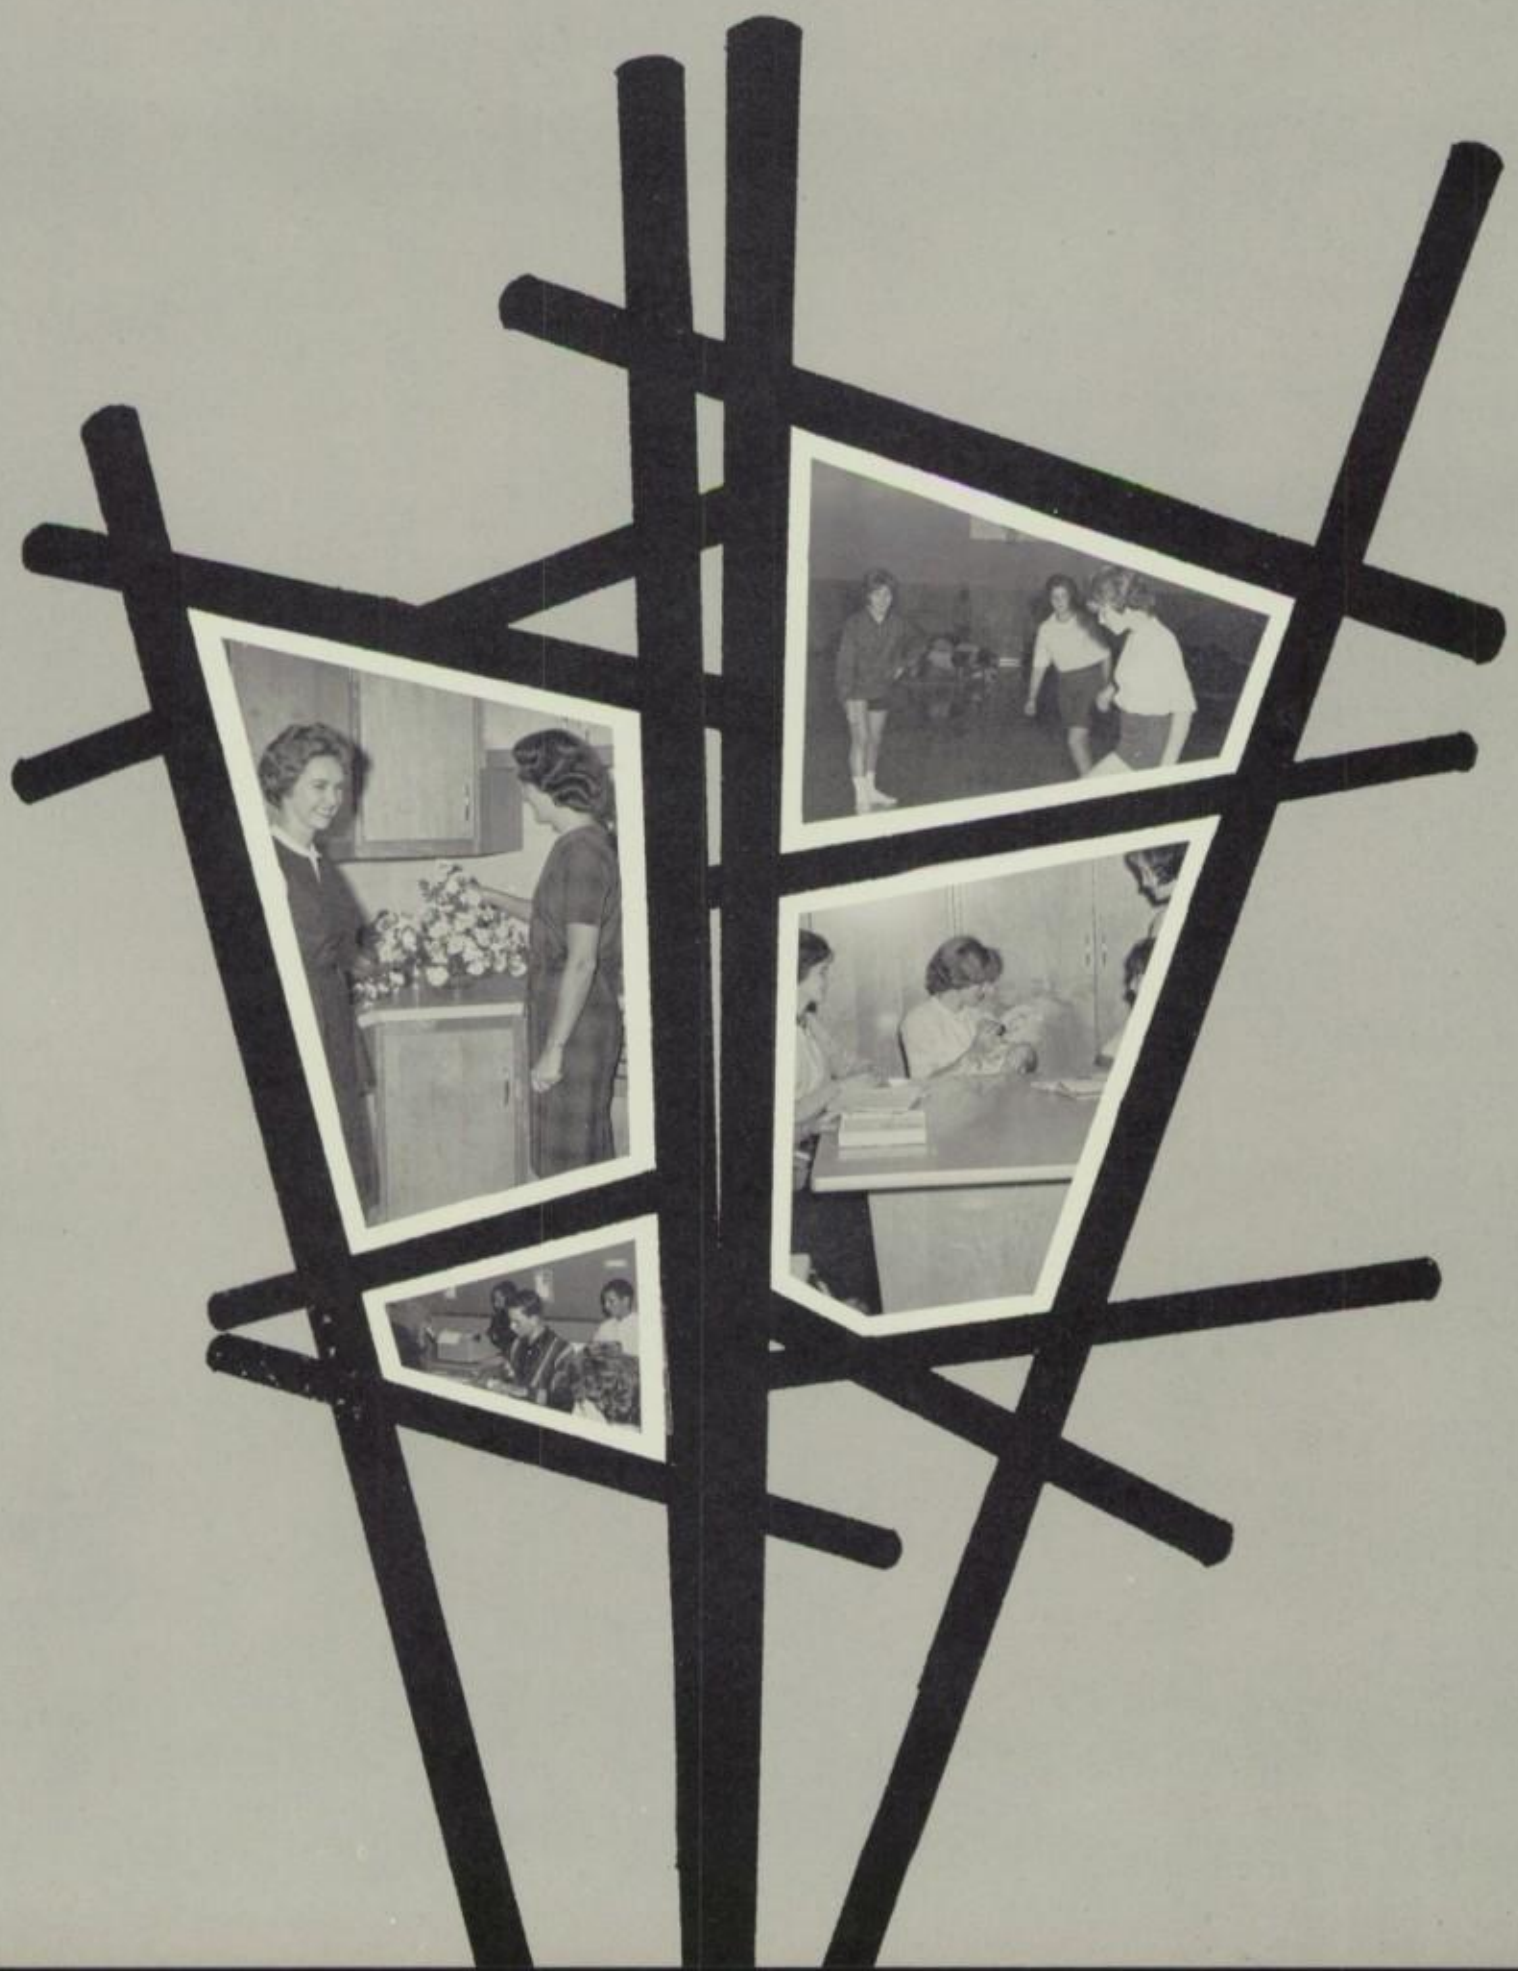
To secure adequate laws for the care and protection of children and youth.

To bring into closer relation the home and the school, that parents and teachers may co-operate intelligently in the training of a child.

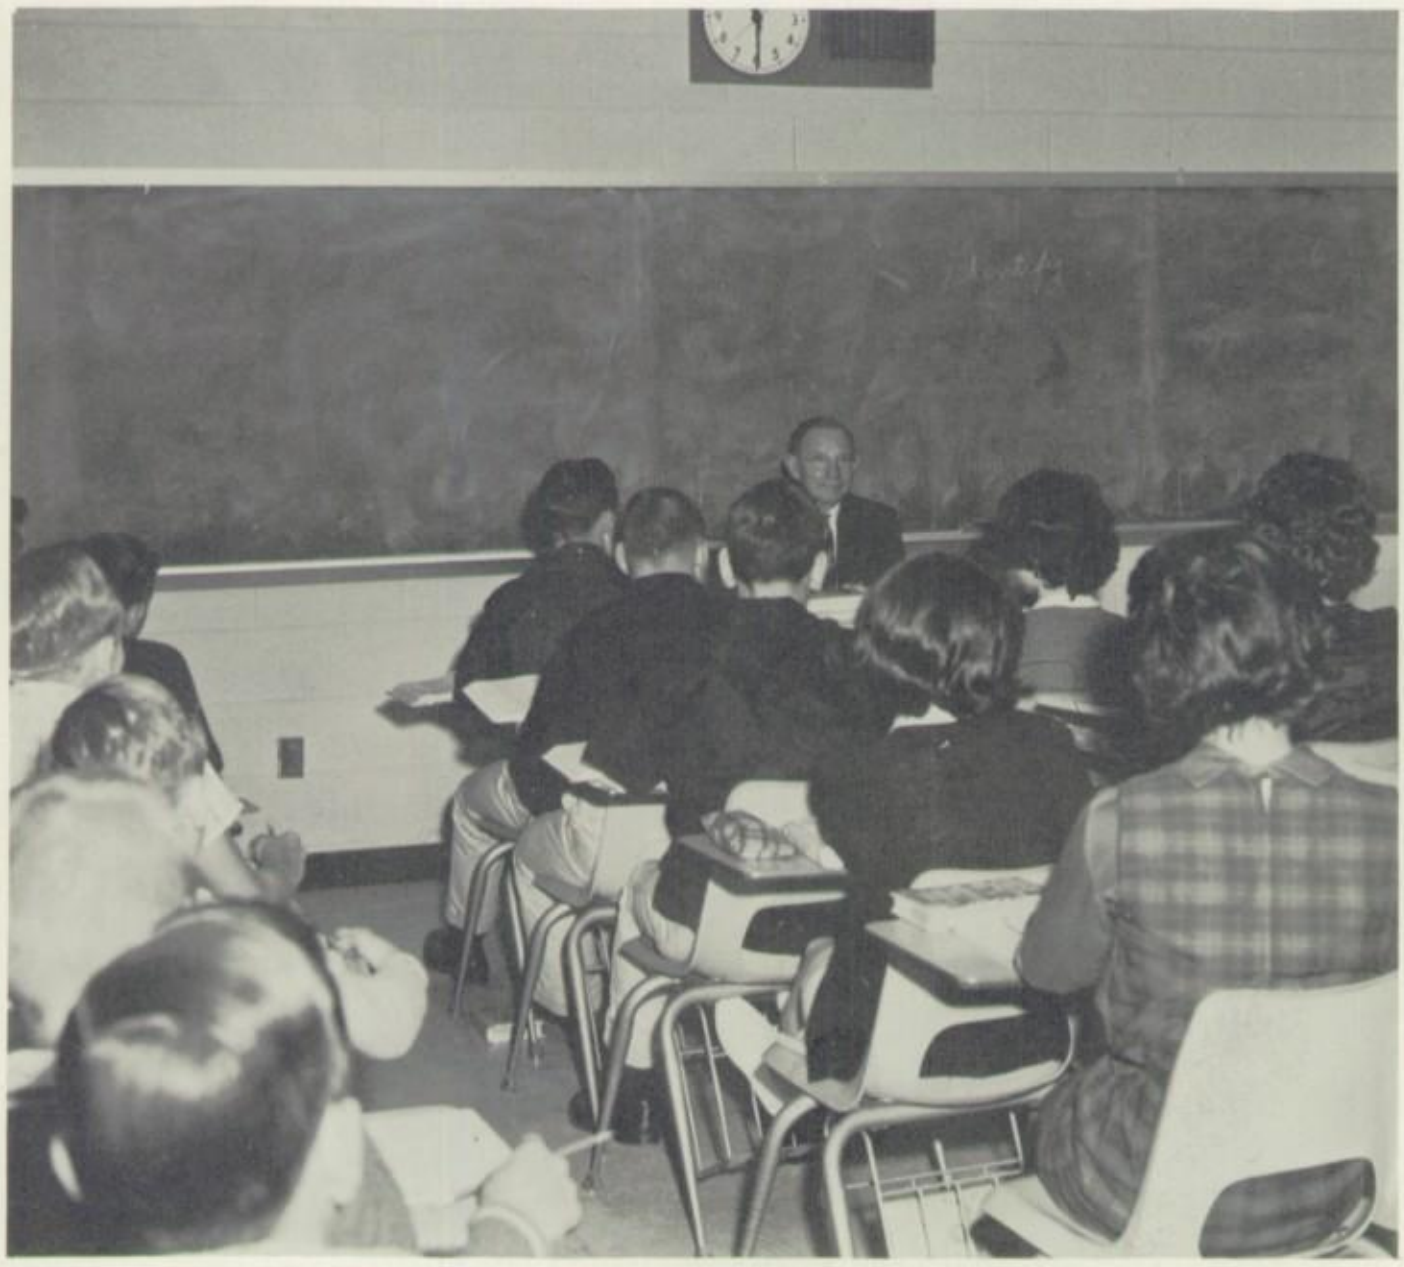
To develope between educators and the general public such united efforts as will secure for every child the highest advantage in physical, mental, social, and spiritual education.

Seniors, Woody McCain, Marie Martin, and Pat Farthing help prepare the 1963-64 P. T. A. yearbook. This is an annual Business Club project.

Curriculum



English



Mrs. Janet Friedman
Mrs. Naomi Houser
Mrs. Shirley McCain
Mrs. Marilyn Russell
Mr. Julius Spears
Mr. George Wells
Mr. Tommy Wilson

To acquire the ability to communicate better in our world by verbal and written means.

Our English Department also includes courses in journalism, speech, and drama.

Foreign Language

Mrs. Marilyn Russell
Mr. George Wells

To learn the language and customs of the Spanish and French speaking nations and to prepare students for college.

Here Mrs. Russell, Spanish instructor, operates the controls of the master unit in the language laboratory, a major feature in our new school building.

Science

Mr. Alvis Barker
Miss Shirley Howard
Mrs. Sara Payne

General science courses, biology, and chemistry are offered here at Dan River. Through these courses students learn about and better appreciate the wonderful world of science around us.

Social Studies

Mr. Frank Fuller
Miss Mattie Hodnett
Mrs. Naomi Houser
Mr. Fuller Motley

This department includes courses in history, geography, and government of our nation and the world.

To become better citizens of our state and nation.

Mathematics

Mr. William Bryant
Mr. Harry Johnston
Mrs. Shirley McCain
Mrs. Cecile Roach

Dan River offers math courses for business, general use, and preparation for higher study. These courses range from general mathematics to trigonometry.

Vocational Agriculture

Mr. Lewis Motley
Mr. William Wallace

Our new building furnishes two class rooms and two large shops for this department. Here students develope into leaders in the agricultural field, cooperative men, and good citizens.

Home Economics

Miss Eltha Campbell
Mrs. Charlotte Stigall

Our new home economics department includes two complete kitchens, two class rooms, and living room. The purpose of this course is to help individuals improve personal, family, and community living.

For the first eight weeks of the school year this department had two student teachers from Longwood College.

Miss Cowan

Miss Ramsay

Business

To provide students with a means of earning a livelihood; to strengthen the confidence of men and women in themselves and their work. Courses in general business, typing, shorthand, business English, bookkeeping, and economics are offered.

Mr. Neal Dodson

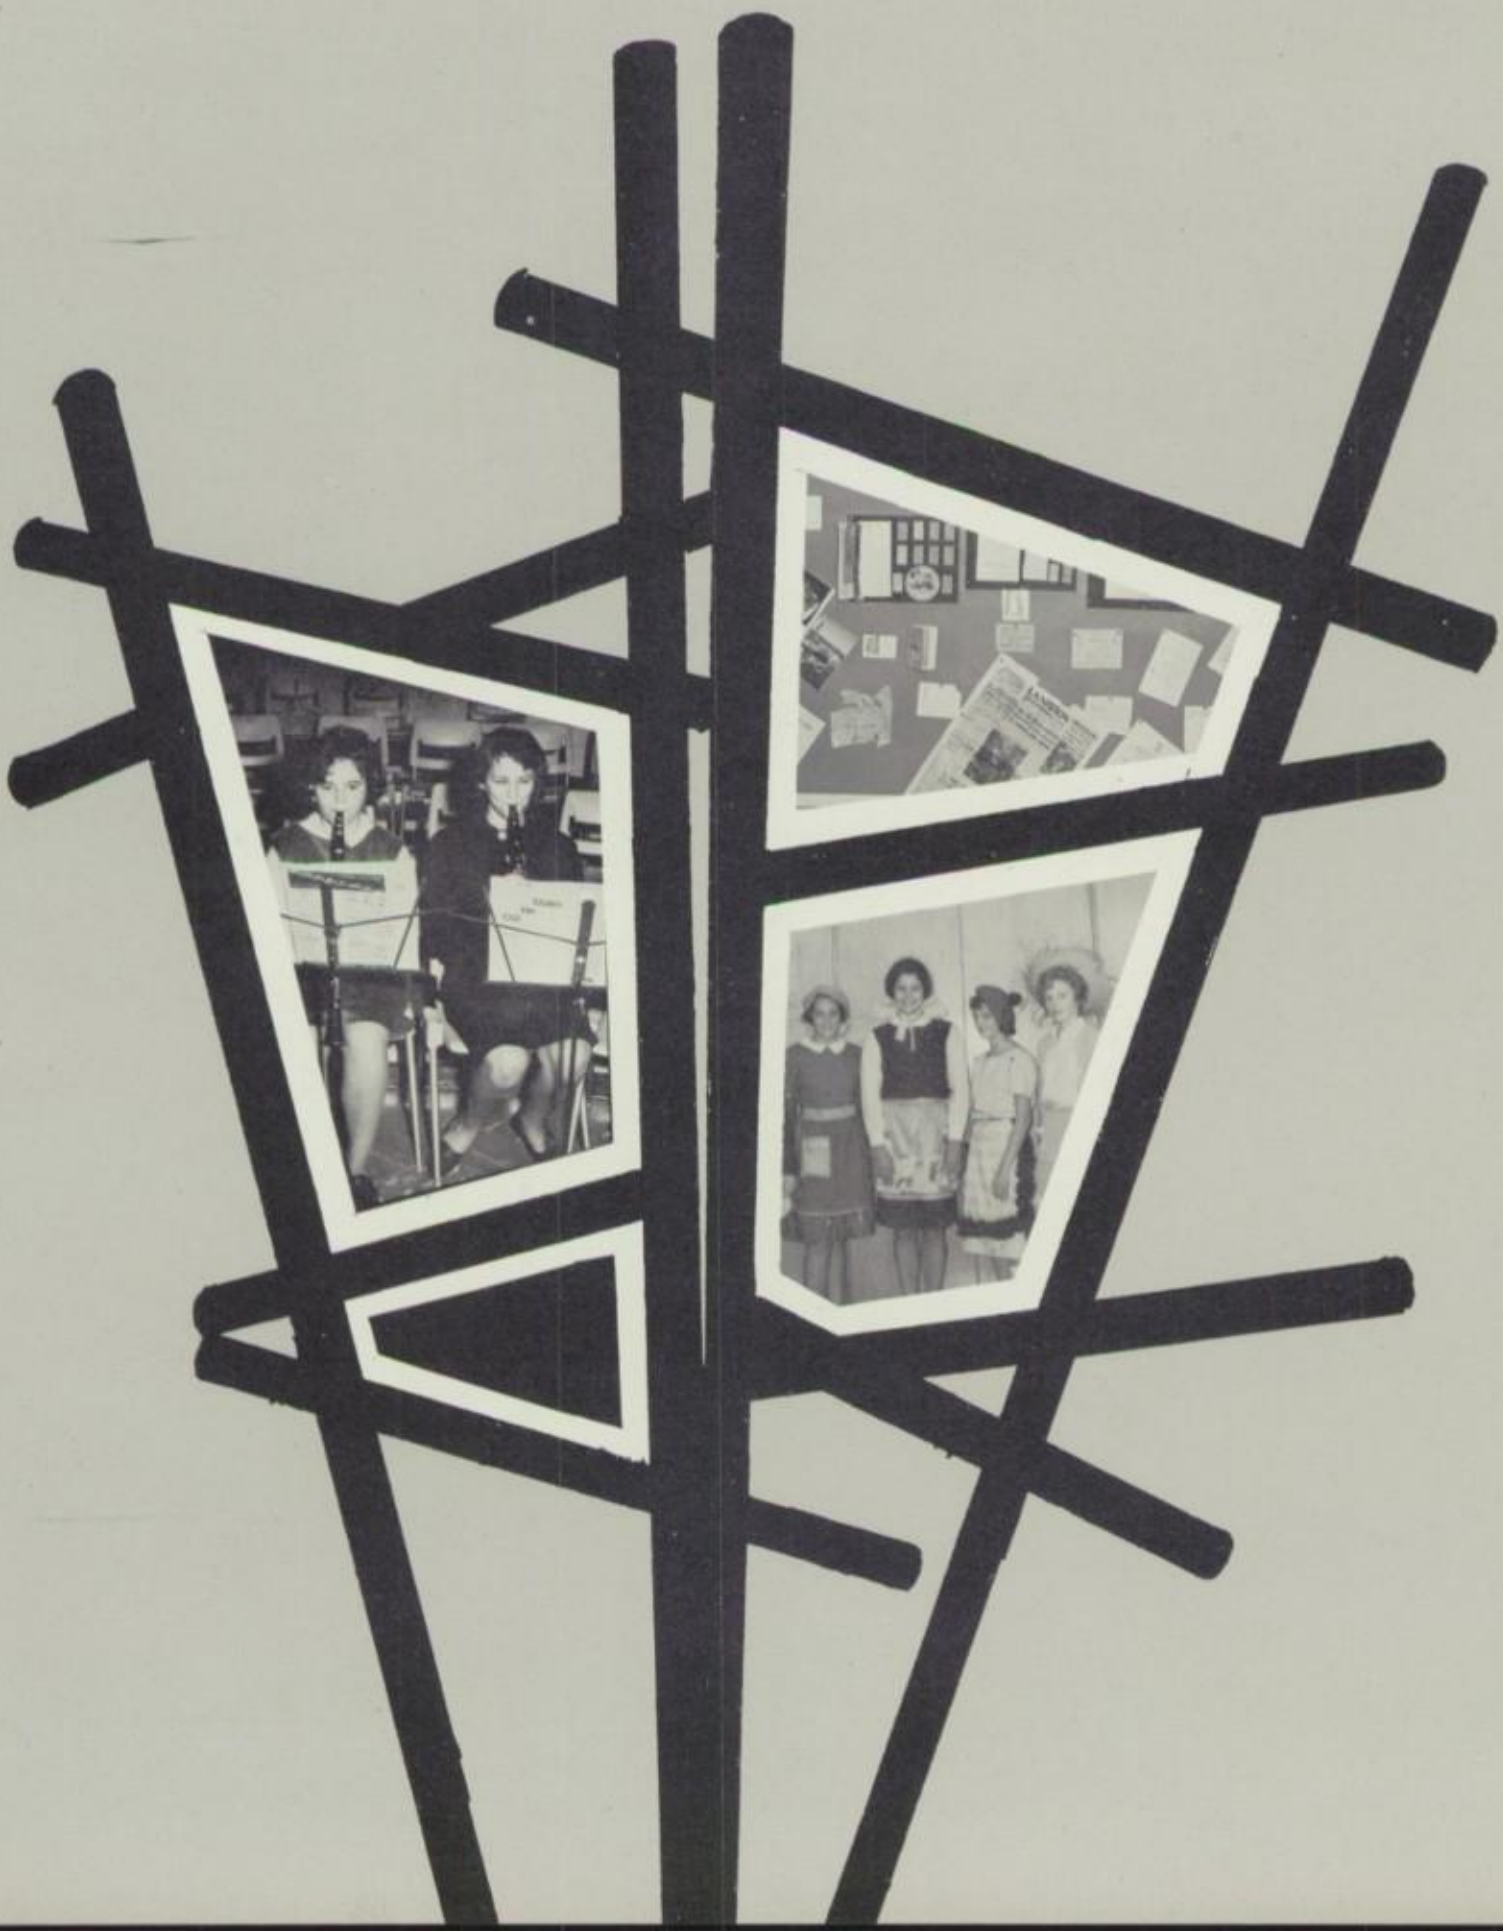
Clubs



Student Cooperative Association

The S. C. A. is responsible for governing the student body. It strives to promote high ideals in the school life of the students.

To "Attain New Heights" was the goal of the Student Cooperative Association of Dan River High School in 1963-1964.

Realizing the importance, responsibility and the challenge before us; organization and encouragement of a Demerit System was the first step in strengthening the student government.

To serve our school in the future, creating and recommending a new Coat of Arms and a new Alma Mater.

Serving the present, installation of a student phone, publishing a Student Directory, and a Suggestion Box for students.

Coordination of Club Activities to avoid conflicts, by filing club records and inviting club presidents to S. C. A. meetings.

Through amendments in the Student Cooperative Association Constitution for betterment of the organization, we, the student government of 1963-1964, sought to clear the path for "Attaining New Heights."

Students who are interested in teaching as a career are members of the FTA. At club meetings they learn to use the characteristics which are necessary for successful teaching. Each member endeavors to understand the development of schools, their purposes and contributions to our society, and the opportunities they offer to us in education. A delegation from the club attended the State FTA Convention and the entire club is selling toothbrushes as a fund-raising project.

The Future Homemakers of America is an organization composed of students studying homemaking in high school. The Dan River chapter is one of the largest clubs in the state. It is an active member of the Piedmont Federation, the Virginia Association, of the FHA, and the National FHA.

The club has had many activities this year, with 25 members earning the Junior Homemaker Degree and 13 earning the Chapter Degree. Six girls have applied for the State Homemaker Degree. The FHA meets every month and has had two guest speakers this year. Janice Clark, club historian, is the correspondent from the club for a national magazine, Co-Ed. Nancy Landrum, club president, is the treasurer for the Piedmont Federation this year and Jean Ricketts, vice-president, has been elected Federation treasurer for next year. The chapter's money-making project was the sale of stationery with the new school's picture on it.

The Future Farmers of America is a national organization which places emphasis on those who are interested in the field of agriculture. A wide variety of activities is carried on by the club throughout the year. Each year the club has a display in the Danville Fair, where they show their farm products.

This year they have made and sold mail-box posts and farm gates, tractor seat covers, and candy to finance their Sweetheart Party and annual Father-Son Hamburger Fry. The Dan River Chapter members participate in the Federation activities in which Jimmy Hogan is serving as federation treasurer this year.

Senior Class Play

The Senior Class presented BROTHER GOOSE, a three-act comedy, by William Davidson on November 22, 1963, in the new school auditorium. The play provided lively entertainment for the audience as the plot developed into a huge mix-up of minds.

The cast for the play included:

Jeff, BROTHER GOOSE - Danny Andrews
Leonore - Brenda Ruth Marshall
Mrs. Trimmer - Sharone Hawker
Truck Driver - Jimmy Hogan
Eve - Faye Adams
Wes - Tommy Foster
Hy - Pat Webb
Peggy - Peggy Ingram
Helen - Linda Adams
Sarah - Faye McCormick
Carol - Nancy Saunders

"Wesley Adams, don't you dare!" exclaims Eve.

Is it "Sarah" or Faye? Only the make-up committee knows for sure.

Hy illustrates her singing and playing ability to a not so enthusiastic Peggy.

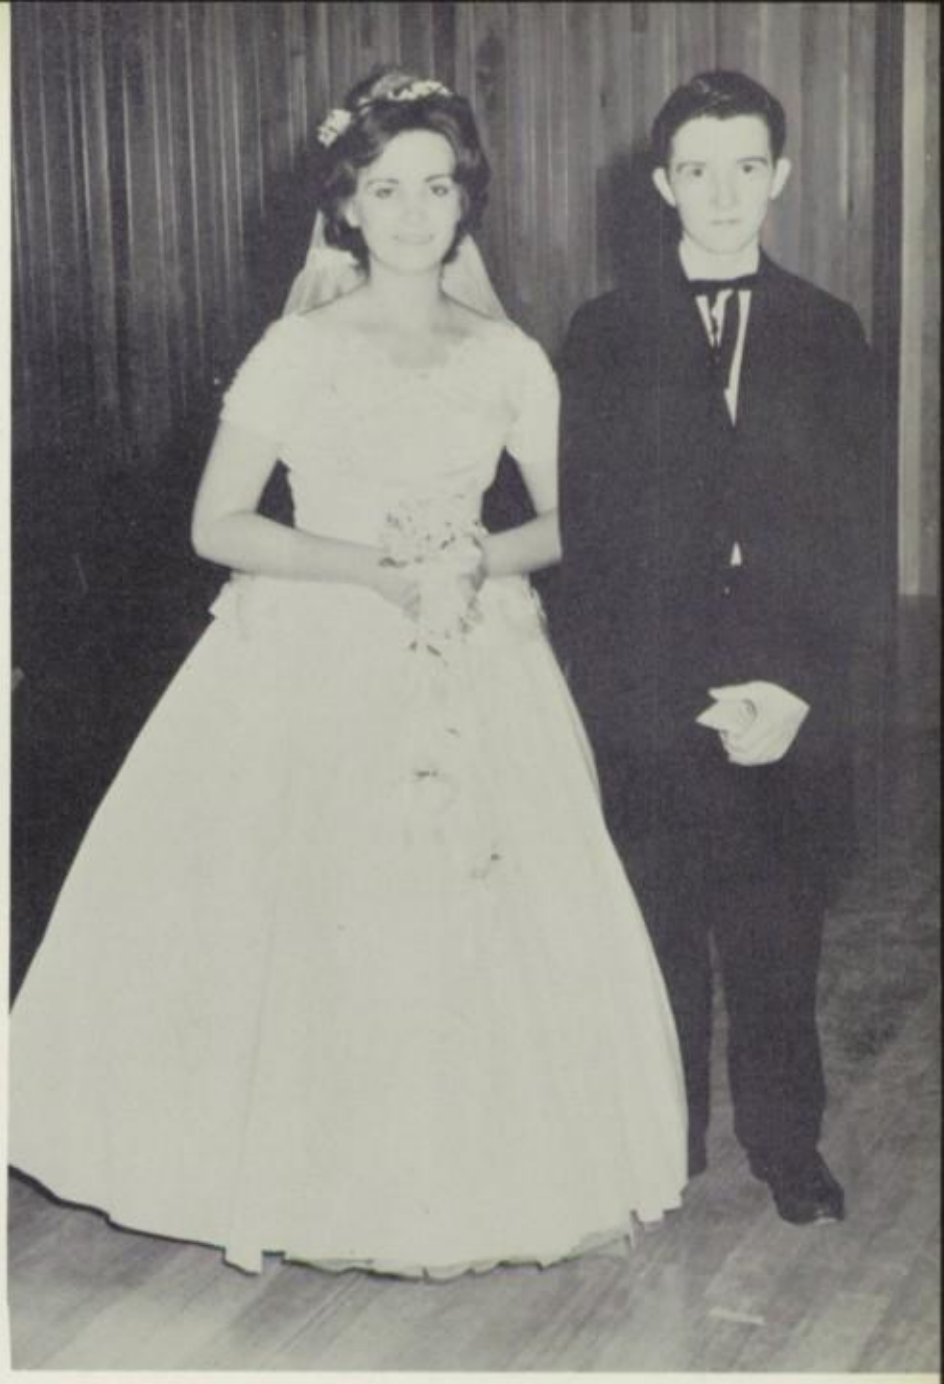
"And this," says Jeff, "is the master bedroom."

Rebecca Carter applies "Helen's" make-up on opening night.

Junior Class Play

On October 18, 1963, the Junior Class presented Thornton Wilder's three-act play, OUR TOWN, to a large and enthusiastic audience. Those who attended this dramatic presentation saw a performance in which they used their imagination as an important factor in the enjoyment and understanding of the plot as the majority of the action was done in pantomime.

Many of the townspeople mourn the death of Emily as she stands excluded from their sight.



"Do you, Emily Webb, (Brenda Clark) take George Gibbs (Boyd Cassada) to be your lawful wedded husband?"

"Now son, I have told you once," exclaims Mrs. Webb (Rae Clark) as Mr. Webb (Jimmy LaPrade) looks on, "you have to wear your golashes when you go out in this kind of weather!"

"And they say that Simon Stimson (Bobby Hawker) was seen staggering down the street last night after midnight, Mrs. Gibbs!" Mrs. Gibbs (Betty Whitlow)

"Moonlight and Roses"

Woody McCain and Pat Webb were crowned by the Junior Class President, Peggy Ingram, to reign as King and Queen of the Prom.

The highlight of DRHS's social functions was held May 24, 1963, at the Country Club Inn.

The theme, "Moonlight and Roses," was carried out beautifully by the Class of '64 as they honored the Senior Class with a formal dance.

"Miss Merry Christmas"

Sharone Hawker, candidate from the Senior Class, was crowned "Miss Merry Christmas" at the annual SCA Christmas Ball. A bouquet of poinsettias was presented to Miss Hawker by Pat Webb, SCA Secretary.

Miss Dan River

Linda Stanfield was elected Miss Dan River 1963-64 by her fellow Senior Class members. Miss Stanfield represented Dan River High School in the Chatham Christmas Parade.

If your barn should catch fire,

SMITH-DOUGLASS PROTECTS YOUR FERTILIZER INVESTMENT

You can store Smith-Douglass fertilizer without fear of loss from fire because it is a long established Smith-Douglass policy to replace, without charge, any Smith-Douglass fertilizer destroyed by fire while in storage on the farm.

Throughout the years, many farmers have been reimbursed for Smith-Douglass fertilizer which burned when a tobacco barn or other storage house unfortunately caught fire.

BUY YOUR SMITH-DOUGLASS FERTILIZER NOW . . . STORE IT . . . AND FEEL SECURE.

The voice with a smile

Today, as always, the C&P voice with a smile is as close as "Operator" on your dial. Intelligently, cheerfully, the "Operator" handles phone calls to faraway places and intricate day-to-day problems of telephone users. Her job is interesting, important, demanding and rewarding. She's an indispensable member of our C&P communications service team.

Let us take care of your financial worries

It is June now! Our bridge is completed and we are crossing it into the adult world. Left behind are our customs and ideals which are now the traditions for those in the rising classes.

Some of the foundations of our bridge were laid in the sorrow that comes to all young people while the others were laid in the happiness and hope that we have for our future. Our bridge is a symbol of our years at Dan River, which were filled with sorrows, happiness, and much hope.

We hope that we have helped to make this world a place of freedom and enduring peace, brotherhood and prosperity for all through our

"Building for Others"
